OFFICE ORDER

Reference is made to the office order of even no. dt. 5th feb. 2004 wherein allocations of duties of Central / Regional/ Branch Office Bearers were issued for effective functioning of the organization.

A letter reference is further made vide no. AAEU/CHQ/ Pre./ Org./63 dated 7th July, 2004 from Com. S.R.Santhanam, All India President of AAEU received by the office of the General Secretary AAEU, New Delhi with the directions to issue a fresh amendment office order to all the branches of AAEU.

As such it is mentioned here that as per the provision laid down in the constitutions of AAEU under clause (20 (3) (c) (i) and (iii) & (d) the duties and responsibilities issued vide this office order of dated 5th Feb. 2004) is now stands inoperative with immediate effect. The office order Dt. 5.2.04 with reference to the "work distribution of the various office bearers including Central Office Bearers of AAEU" now should be dealt in a more cohesive manner, specially keeping in view the present organizational scenario. Hence, onwards the entire organizational matter will be solely dealt by the CHQ only. All the Central Office Bearers are requested to be vigilant and every now and then they must exchange their views, if any, in a more cohesive manner. Before conveying any directions at any level including Region/ branches the necessary consent must be obtained in written from the office of the General Secretary in order to avoid any confusions.

Further it is learnt that the office bearers while handling the FINANCIAL MATTERS are deviating somewhere against the set up norms of our constitution. The Financial Secretary is now required to submit his report as per the office records, in case any deviation anywhere, if found, he should bring it to the notice of the undersigned in written and may suggest any suitable action including departmental. He is also required to take the help from the ex- financial secretary for completion of said work. The ex-financial secretary will be assisting the financial secretary for the same and shall make available all relevant documents for completion of statement of account at the earliest.

LONG LIVE AAEU

Yours Comradely,

(M.K. Ghoshal)
General Secretary AAEU.
